

Mosaic Stadium

Torys acted as counsel to the City of Regina as the public authority for the C$278 million Mosaic Stadium PPP project to design, build and finance a new stadium for the Saskatchewan Roughriders football team in Regina, Saskatchewan.

Photo courtesy of HKS, Inc.

Municipality:	Regina
Province:	Saskatchewan
Country:	Canada
Procurement Model:	DBF - Design Build Finance
Government Level:	Municipal
Value:	$278,000,000 CAD
Client Name:	City of Regina
Client Role:	Public Authority

The project, which is part of the City of Regina's urban revitalization project, involved demolishing the existing Mosaic Stadium and building a new 33,000-seat stadium along with housing units and a commercial and retail space on a 53-acre plot of land.

Construction of stadium began in 2014 and the stadium was formally opened in the summer of 2017.

Torys represented the City of Regina with a team that included Mark Bain, Tara Mackay, Harold Huber and Matthew McMahon.
